Where

WHERE THERE'S LIFE, we find PEOPLE— young people, eager people, full of spirit, full of enthusiasm, bubbling over with the joy of living and aspirations for the future.

The hallowed halls of WHS will ever encase the many cherished memories that our high school years afforded us. Cheerful laughs and shouts of joy ring with warmly familiar tones as we recall school dances, football and basketball games, pep assemblies, and after school cokes with our friends.

The 1963 REFLECTOR staff, in hopes of recreating in your mind those four wonderful years, takes pride in presenting to you the Whiting High School 1963 REFLECTOR.

Fun and Learning Play a Big Part at WHS

From the frenzy of basketball to the dignity of graduation, the Memorial Gym serves many purposes to the students and friends of Whiting High.

Through these doors of Whiting High daily pass 545 students and 32 teachers. In the final seconds before the 8:15 a.m. tardy bell sounds, one can see a few late sleepers dashing hurriedly towards one of the 25 classrooms in use.

Located on 1800 New York Avenue, our school facilities include a huge gymnasium, a well-kept football field, a regulation size swimming pool, and separate chemistry and biology labs. Staffed by 27 people, our maintenance department undertakes the ever-ending and sometimes thankless job of keeping our school property in tip-top shape.

Since the opening of its doors 65 years ago, Whiting High School has adhered faithfully to its policy of striving constantly to improve itself in every manner possible.

Students have the chance to burn the midnight oil at our Whiting Public Library.

Each School Day Begins With Salute to Flag

Mr. John McNamera of the maintenance department raises the flag daily

George Toth opens the day with "To the Colors."

Students start off right each morning with the pledge to the flag.

Each school morning begins patriotically with the pledge of allegiance to the flag. All Whiting High School students, along with their teachers, pledge loyalty to their country.

"To the Colors" can be heard while the "Pledge" is being said.

After a homeroom period of 15 minutes, the six periods of the day commence. The periods, with 5-minute breaks between them, last 55 minutes. Special schedules are also arranged for assemblies.

Gals and Guys Liven Days with Shenanigans

Everyday happenings around Whiting High School are quite the same as those around other high schools. Whiting is an ordinary high school and the students are no different.

The fifteen minute homeroom at the beginning of the day is usually taken up with club meetings, reading of announcements, and last minute homework assignments.

Between classes you can see students hurrying from class to class or socializing in the halls. Whiting students have proved that a lot can be said in a five-minute break.

"In the basket, girls," commands Miss Mary Wysong to juniors Pat Brozanski and Anne Companik.

Late again for class, Dixie McConnell quietly peeks, then dares to walk in.

"Gee, hope we don't get caught," think Pat Cooper and Jerry Carroll.

Activity Night Provides Fun and Entertainment

Wayne Morden concentrates on the game of chess as he makes his next move against Matt Petrak.

One evening a month from November through March is set aside for an Activity Night. These nights students can be seen flocking to Memorial Gymnasium for an evening of recreation. Volleyball, golf, ping-pong, horseshoes, shuffleboard, badminton, dancing, and playing chess and checkers are activities enjoyed by the students.

Activity Nights are made possible through the efforts of the Activity Committee of the Student Council and with the helpful co-operation of the Athletic Department.

The Student Council inaugurated Activity Nights in 1961.

Rita Keith bars Willie Kovacich from an attempted shot.

David Kelly and Steve Nagy enjoy a game of horseshoes.

Dawn 'til Dusk Students Keep on The Go

"Harder, girls," shouts a perplexed Wayne Morden to Eileen Sandrick, Linda Saltz and Diane Ferris.

Tim Hazard says, "SAY THERE."

A patron of the Arts, Tim Kompier can study English literature for hours.

NEWS PERTAINING TO GUIDANCE

Seniors, Pat Drabek and Carol Pulliam check the guidance bulletin board for current announcements on educational and employment opportunities.

"Don't just stand there eating," Betty Dedinsky says to Dave Cranford; "help me pick it up."

Student Antics Bring Life Into Ordinary Day

Senior girls, Nancy Yusko and Sue Carter, primp between classes to get that certain assurance.

Ruth Thornton and Ron Jerzyk, sophomores, take final look at class rings.

'MoonlightCruise,' A Moment toRemember

Taking time out for refreshments are George Justak, Denise Dolinski, Jay Chrustowski, and Jeannine DeCarlo.

"Would you like to dance?" asks Dave Kelly of Ramiza Roman.

Homecoming Parade Brings Memories to Alumni

"Blast Those Norsemen," shouts an enthused senior.

Blazing flames with cheers for victory ended the Homecoming parade.

"ABAJO EMERSON!" exclaims el Club Espanol.

Tattler-Reflector float adds to the parade.

Candidates for queen climax the Homecoming parade.

Getting in the swing of things, the football team participates in the parade.

Excited students make signs.

Homecoming Remains in Hearts of Students

With sighs of happiness and gratitude, another Homecoming queen is crowned.

Festivities for the homecoming started on Thursday evening, October 4, with the annual parade. Cars and floats from the different classes, clubs, and organizations comprised the major part of the parade.

Alumni and students filled the stands for the homecoming game. The Oilers met with Emerson and overpowered them with a score of 25 to 13.

At half time William Kovacich, Student Council president, presented the traditional bouquet of roses with a kiss to Carol Milarch. She was crowned queen and reigned, with the rest of her court, over homecoming.

Eileen Sandrick, Sylvia Strickland, and Linda Langohr represented the seniors. Kittie Dyer represented the juniors; Nancy Davidson, the sophomores; and Jeannine DeCarlo, the freshmen.

Riding to the big moment of Homecoming are the queen nominees—Eileen Sandrick, Sylvia Strickland, Linda Langohr, and Carol Milarch.

HOMECOMING COURT 1962

A NIGHT IN THE ORIENT Brings Shangri

John Zunac; Dorothy Seman, junior class president; Julia Tornai; George Pavlina, senior class president, take time out to admire prom decorations.

Months of hard work and anticipation finally paid off on May 18, 1962, the date of the Junior-Senior Prom.

This starlit evening was perfect for "A Night in the Orient" in the St. John Panel Room.

From nine to midnight the couples danced and dreamed in tune with the music provided by the Reynold Young Orchestra.

The theme was carried out largely in the oriental colors of jet black and fire red. The couples entered their "Night in the Orient" over a bridge, typical of the oriental countries. At the end of the bridge the couples passed under a trellis, symbolic of entering the oriental garden.

La to Happy Whiting High Prom Couples

Making sure they look their very best, Carol Pulliam straightens Tim Hazard's tie.

Elaine DeHenes, Linda Langohr, and Rich Johnson put finishing touches on decorations for the prom.

WHERE THERE'S LIFE, there are ACADEMICS. In our rapidly advancing day and age, stepped up educational requirements are a necessity; and Whiting High School meets this challenge through its ever-improving academic program.

Students taking a vocational or commercial course have a wide selection of shop, business, or home economics courses to choose from. College bound students have the opportunity to take the advantageous college prep course, which consists of a variety of math, science, language, and social study classes.

Though a small school, WHS has as diversified an academic course as some schools many times our size.

Miss Wysong, Latin teacher, goes over the translation of "Nero, the Singing Emperor."

Explaining a difficult translation to second year Spanish students is Mr. Jack Taylor, Spanish teacher.

Language Courses Emphasize Vocal Fluency

Chuck McConnell, Spanish student, and George Kucka, Latin student, shake on agreement of Latin and Spanish affairs.

WHS students take courses in Spanish or Latin for their own enjoyment. These courses are not required and are offered for two years as an aid to understanding and learning more about other countries and their languages. English is taught for four years and is required for graduation. The English department includes journalism, speech, literature, and grammar.

Speech, Grammar, Lit Offered to WHS Pupils

Pat Brown, sophomore, spices up her speech with meaningful gestures.

Mr. Alex Kompier checks John Martin's reading ability during the junior literature class.

Mr. James Ulrich points out an important rule to Sylvia Strickland, senior grammar student. Joe Kovacik "studies" diligently.

Students Unlock Secrets of Chemistry, Physics

Steve Nagy and John Martin, junior chemists, await the final reaction of a complicated experiment. Mr. Leckrone, teacher, looks on.

Clouds of smoke and bright flashes may be found about the chemistry class as the junior scientists study about the chemical composition of matter. The course is designed to deal in the historical, theoretical, and practical aspects of chemical science. Students also learn proper techniques and safety in the lab.

Physics, the father of sciences, is basically the study of the physical nature of matter. Time, space, and energy are only a few of the fields discussed in physics class. At least an hour each week is spent in the lab, where students learn how to use everything from rulers to analytical balances.

In the senior physics class, John Negoverich explains to Dennis Wozniczka the use of the incline plane, a helpful instrument. Mr. Leckrone, physics instructor, listens for the correct explanation.

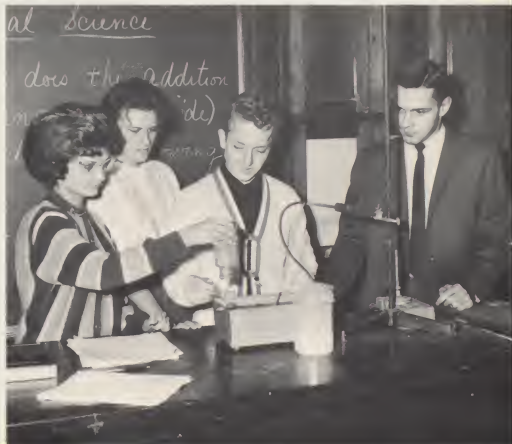

Ron Jercyk studies the structure of a flower stem under the microscope.

Sophomores Cheryl Macko and Chuck Zondor identify leaves for their leaf collections in Biology.

Sciences Satisfy Curiosity of Eager Students

Mr. Pygman watches as general science students—Pat Campbell, Phyllis Jones, and Greg Senchak—work on an experiment in the preparation of oxygen.

Math Proves Essential in This Modern Age

The Mathematics Department at Whiting High School offers a diversified program of courses, enabling the student to choose a suitable vocation.

Any student planning a college education should take freshman Algebra and Plane Geometry. These two courses will develop his thinking ability and introduce him to basic mathematical theorems.

Those students anticipating a career in mathematics or engineering will take Advanced Algebra and Senior Math. The Algebra further develops the basic principles covered in the freshman and sophomore years, while the latter touches upon College Mathematics.

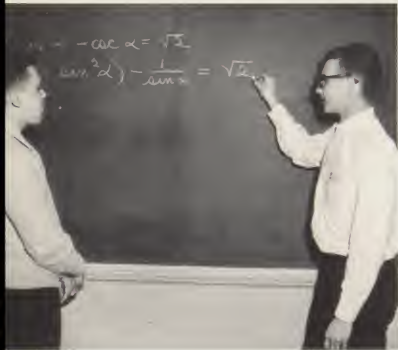

For those who intend to follow a career in "Big Business" the Math Department offers General Business and Business Math.

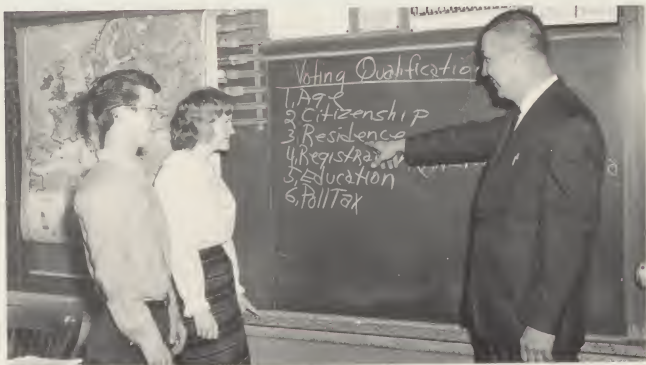

In Advanced Algebra Class Mr. Allen teaches Norb Shebish the use of the slide rule.

Dave Cranford explains a formula in Business Math to Jean Szyjko.

Dennis Zelenke looks on as Dennis Wozniczka works a trigonometric problem in Advanced Math Class.

Students Learn Importance of Social Studies

Learning from Mr. Fowdy, civics teacher, what will be helpful after graduation are Michael Wayo and Nancy Stewart.

In American History class Dennis Bondra discusses current events with Mrs. Marie Lentvorsky, teacher.

Social Studies curriculum consists of American History, World History, Civics, and Geography.

The American History course covers the growth of America from the first settlement at Jamestown in 1607 to the closing of the Second World War in 1945.

World History students study the advances of civilization in all parts of the world from the prehistoric era to modern day.

Government from the local to the national level is covered in the civics course.

Geography is taught to familiarize the freshmen with the topography and fertility of the soil of the countries of the world as well as their general weather conditions.

Business World Beckons WHS Students

The second period advanced typing class learns the techniques of typing on electric typewriters.

Future secretaries take dictation given by Mr. Arnold Turner, shorthand instructor.

Typing, shorthand, and office practice are offered to students who are pursuing careers in the business world. These subjects are the basis of the commercial course.

Clicking keys and an occasional error or two accompany the typing student on his way to speed and accuracy.

Trying to transcribe accurately yesterday's notes and to take dictation at 100 to 120 words a minute are the goals shorthand students strive for during the two-year course.

Achieving skill in operating various office machines is learned in office practice.

Social Studies Provides Knowledge of World

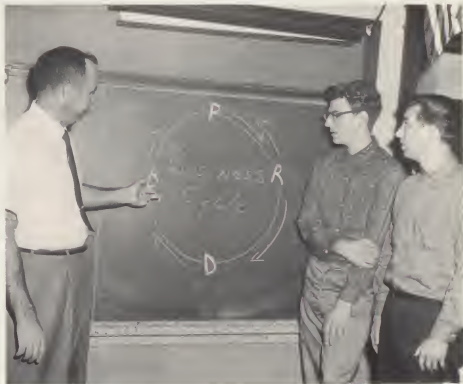

Practical application of the study of the mind is the main objective of the psychology course. Questions such as "Who should I marry?", "What vocation should I choose?", "What is my part in life?", etc., are answered partially by the course.

The purpose of health is to instruct the students in personal hygiene and first aid. The basic nature of the structure and functions of the human body is also studied.

Students in economics class learn the basic jargon of the financial world. The causes of the variation in the business cycle are also seriously discussed.

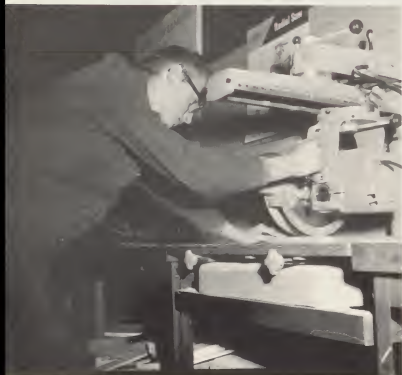

During psychology class the question, "What's her name this time, Joe?", is brought up by Mrs. Mehleck, psychology instructor.

Mr. Buckley, economics teacher explains the "business cycle" to Wayne Morden and Ray Williams.

Students Prepare for Vocations in Industry

Jack Yager, wood shop student, checks carefully to see that his buzz saw cut will be precise.

Sparks fly as Mike Mayernik works in machine shop.

James Dixon examines a book while Mr. B. J. Vesely, printing instructor, watches John Kobe set type.

Shop courses offered at Whiting High School are machine shop, print shop, and wood shop. These courses are taken by boys pursuing a general or vocational course.

In each of these shops, boys are taught the fundamentals of that particular craft. A knowledge of these fundamentals enables a boy to become more aware of the importance of a skilled craftsman.

Machine shop is set up to train a boy to go into a trade after graduation. It enables boys to learn the operation and functions of various types of machines.

Printing and woodshop offer students the techniques of their respective fields.

Lines and Angles Torment Future Architects

Mr. Hall demonstrates to Tim Moynihan, during his mechanical drawing class, the right way to use a pencil.

Men Versus Women Drivers in Training Class

Drivers training class receive a new Chevrolet in which to learn driving operations.

Students Participate in Home Economics Class

Phyllis Banasak, Margaret Carroll, and Susan Hunter give competition to "old-pro" Betty Crocker.

Cooking, a course open to all students from eighth grade on, is an elective subject. Its function is not only to instruct the future homemakers in the preparation of food but also to teach them the basic principles of good nutrition. Personal hygiene and cleanliness of the cooking area are also stressed.

In the sewing class WHS students learn to make everyday wearing apparel ranging from bermuda shorts to pajamas. Also taught in this course is the proper care for various materials.

Art pupils are finding a whole new field of enjoyment and beauty opening before them. They learn of the true make-up of art consisting partly of perspective and dimension.

Nancy Perry and Carol Mayernick admire Joanne Buksar's latest creation in sewing class.

Mr. Spoerner, art teacher, looks on as John Kilgour, Elaine DeHenes, and Dennis Zelenke display their artistic abilities.

Physical Fitness Needed for a Better Country

Jim Moore looks on with curiosity while the girls' gym class participates in exercises.

Miss Judy Kaminski, secretary to the principal, and Mrs. Gladys Hardys, general office secretary, assort mail for teachers.

Business-wise in the school are Mrs. Dorothy Williams, bookstore clerk; Mr. Joseph McDonald, business manager; and Mrs. Robert Kaine, secretary to the superintendent.

They Keep Our School Clean and in Order

Keeping the school in condition are the maintenance supervisor, the head janitress, and the rest of the maintenance department.

If it weren't for this department, our school would be too dirty and too cold to attend. Much credit should be given to our maintenance department for keeping our school in an attractive condition.

Our secretaries should be remembered, too, for if it weren't for them, the records of the school would not be in order. There would be no one to mimeograph our tests and announcements.

Students of Whiting High School will remember these essential people.

Making sure things are kept in their right order are Mrs. Josie Quandt, head janitress, and Mr. John Bodney, maintenance supervisor.

W's Awarded to Students with High Averages

A Scholarship "W" is a for-recognition awarded to students who have achieved scholastic honors by maintaining an unusually high average in all subjects.

The Scholarship "W" in actuality is a round patch of material with a "W" on it. The first one awarded to a student is white with a green "W", the second with a white "W", and the third one is green with a white "W" embroidered in green. The fourth scholarship "W" is engraved in gold on the student's diploma.

Winners of Three Scholarship "W"'s
Ron Bettner, Mike Wayo.

Winners of One Scholarship "W"

Tom Wozniczka, Dorothy Seman, Allen Hruskoci, Mary Pavlina, Michael Kometz, John Kender, Marilyn Hrpka.

Winners of Two Scholarship "W"'s

Rich Christiansen, Alex Grdina, Cynthia Burosh, Nancy Jamrose, Arlene Benko.

Board of Education Progresses With Changing

BOARD OF EDUCATION, SEATED: Mr. Joseph S. Kozacik, secretary; Mr. George T. Harangody, president; Mr. George O. Burman, superintendent. STANDING: Mr. Rudolph Zajac, attorney; Mr. Thomas R. Zubeck, treasurer.

In accordance with their plans of modernization and progress, our school board this year has appropriated sufficient funds to cover the expense of a new boiler system and the repairing of our gymnasium roof. Plans of remodeling one class room per year are still in effect.

Elected by the Whiting City Council for three-year terms, WHS school board officials meet twice a month to discuss problems that may have arisen in regards to school management.

The main responsibilities of the Whiting Board include approving all staff appointments, assisting in setting up work programs for the maintenance department, and delegating funds to be spent on school improvement. In general their job consists of making sure that the component parts of our school run smoothly together.

Trends in the Field of Learning in Our School

To the members of the graduating class of 1963 I extend sincerest congratulations and my best wishes for the future.

You should feel great personal satisfaction in having completed requirements for graduation. Through the combined efforts of your government, your parents, and the faculty and administrators of Whiting High School, you are going to face the future with open minds and a truer picture of people and the world around you.

The world you live in is constantly changing, demanding more knowledge, more technical skills, more tolerance, and more understanding. Your generation is no longer the foundation of our great nation alone, but of the entire world.

Whatever your next endeavor is, give it your best, and take a positive approach to the future.

Good-luck!

George O. Burman
Superintendent

Congratulations and best wishes for success were expressed to many of your parents twenty-five or thirty years ago upon graduation from Whiting High School. Over that same span of years from now it is anticipated that your children will be graduating. We hope you will provide for them as your parents have provided for you.

All of you are aware of the emphasis on complete education for the whole child. You are also aware that this is not the end of your education if you are to succeed in your chosen fields.

Some of you will go on to college, some to technical school, some to trade school, and some to on-the-job training. Whatever your choice may be, further educational advancement is necessary.

We hope you have secured a solid educational foundation at Whiting upon which to build and progress. We further hope you have been imbued with the ideals and precepts that will insure the American way of life in the future, guaranteeing a democratic education for your children when they enroll at your beloved Whiting High in future years.

WHERE THERE'S LIFE, there are STUDENTS. Wide-eyed and ambitious freshmen plunge with enthusiasm into their high school careers. Having gone through this period of orientation and adjustment, most grow up a great deal. As sophomores WHS students are introduced to some basic college preparatory courses. They begin now to feel that they are truly a part of something very important. The junior year affords students with many opportunities for enriching their social life. Foremost among these numerous social activities is the long-awaited Junior-Senior Prom. To many their senior year proves most memorable. Now on the threshold of adulthood, the seniors have many decisive problems to resolve—"Shall I get a job or go to college?", "Where am I headed for?", "What are my real goals?"

Each problem in its own turn, each in its own way, plays a very special part in the maturing of every high school student.

Sponsor of Class of 1963 Bids Last Farewell

Solving problems of the class of 1963 for the past four years has been the job of Mr. Thomas M. Faulkner, senior class sponsor.

Taking their last year leisurely are senior class officers: Chuck Skurka president; Bill Zrnchik, vice-president; Carol Milarch, secretary; Joe Curosh, treasurer; Mr. Thomas Faulkner, senior class sponsor.

As we look back, we realize that the last four years have flown by quickly. You began in September, 1959, as mere freshmen and now you are on the threshold of graduating. You have grown much in these four years and now the time has come for you to bid farewell to Whiting High School. It has been a distinct pleasure for me to be associated with such a fine group of students. As you now get ready to take your place in the community, I wish each of you the best of luck in all your future endeavors and urge you — be the best of whatever you are.

Bettner and Burosh Achieve Scholastic Fame

For us, the members of the class of 1963, life at Whiting High School will soon be a memory. The four years that we have spent here are some of the most pleasant that we will ever experience. We were given every opportunity to participate and sometimes to excel in almost any field we desired—athletics, music, dramatics, or scholastics. The decision to take those opportunities and make the most of them was one of the most important moments in our lives. Only time will tell if we have made the right choice.

I sincerely hope that you students who follow us will take full advantage of the facilities and activities which are offered for your benefit. They will round out your personality and prepare you for life after graduation. I'm sure that you will have as much fun doing them as we did.

Ron Bettner
VALEDICTORIAN

We, the class of 1963, have now completed our four years of education here at WHS. They have been memorable ones for all of us. High school marks a turning point in all of our lives.

Some of us will go on to forms of higher learning to further our education. Others will seek different types of training programs to prepare them for their desired vocations.

Although high school is mainly a place to gain knowledge, we will remember much more than that. We will look back on the games, dances, parties, and many activities. We will remember the friendships we acquired and the fun we had.

You, as underclassmen, have time ahead of you in which to fully appreciate your high school years. Take full advantage of them; act wisely. You have much to gain if you do.

WHERE THERE'S LIFE, there are SPORTS. Athletics play an important role in the everyday lives of Whiting High School students. The beginning of school sees the beginning of a new football season. The cindermen also start to get in condition for their oncoming season.

Fall and winter see a change in sports. Swimming and basketball really start to get underway. With the completion of sectionals in basketball and the termination of the swimming season, baseball and track commence. Diamondmen and thinly clads try their best to bring home the honors to their alma mater.

A highlight of the year came when the Whiting "Oilers" were crowned winners of the annual Holiday Tourney, when they defeated their cross-town rival, Clark, by one point.

A first at WHS this year is the contest for Sectional Sweetheart.

Three girls are nominated from each class by the Booster Club on the basis of school spirit, leadership, and personality. WHERE THERE'S LIFE, there are ORGANIZATIONS. Those having leadership abilities have the opportunity to better their school in the Student Council. The National Honor Society is the goal for the scholastically inclined. The Girls' Club promotes friendship, while the Librarians and Monitors serve the office and students respectively. Backing the team is the objective of the Booster Club. Members of the Patrol Club help students safely across streets. The Spanish and Latin Clubs introduce customs of their respective countries and hold annual affairs. The Thespians' plays always give enjoyment. The TATTLER and REFLECTOR staffs work diligently to keep the school publications up to par.

At their bi-weekly meetings directed by Mr. Jack Taylor, the Student Council discusses many activities for the students. Among the traditional functions of conducting the Homecoming activities and election of class officers, they also sponsor monthly activity nights.

Activities aren't the only things that concern the Student Council. Its main function as mediator between the faculty and the students is very important in student-teacher relationships.

Although all students are members of this organization, one student is chosen from each homeroom to represent the class.

Student Council officers are Willie Kovacich, president; Ron Vrabel, vice-president; Joe Kovacik, secretary; John Nego-etich, treasurer; and Mr. Taylor, sponsor.

National Group Honors Upperclass Leaders

National Honor Society officers are seated Bill Morris, first vice-president; Ron Bettner, president; Cynthia Burosh, secretary. Standing are Dennis Zelenke, second vice-president; Bill Kovacich, treasurer; Mrs. Marie Lentvorsky, sponsor.

Outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and service—these are the qualities possessed by the members of the National Honor Society. To be elected into this organization is indeed a privilege and a distinction.

Five members of the junior class are elected as officers in the spring. The following winter ten per cent of the senior class is chosen for membership.

A formal initiation welcomes the students into the organization with the idea that they must always uphold the ideals of the society.

The main activities of the club are the Big Sister-Little Sister Party, at which freshmen receive seniors as their big sisters; the annual Mothers' Day Tea, which honors the mothers of the members; and the Area Girls' Club Conference.

A special feature of the club is a guest speaker who is invited to talk to the girls concerning make-up, fashions, etiquette, and other everyday problems.

The club also sponsors an annual dance and a boy-girl panel discussion.

Throughout the various athletic seasons, Oilers showed their school spirit and enthusiasm through the planning of the Booster Club.

One of the biggest organizations in the school, the Booster Club plans the homecoming parade, organizes the cheering block at sectionals, sells shakers to the student body, and sponsors an all school dance.

To unify the student body and to promote good sportsmanship are the main objectives of this club.

Miss Mary Wysong is sponsor of the club.

During the year, the Patrol Club attends a baseball game, an annual outing held at Whiting Park, and the Chicago Motor Club Picnic.

Heading this club as adviser is Mr. Henry Kosalo.

Officers of the Patrol Club are president, David Stephens; secretary, Stan Skalka; sergeant of arms, John Leone; vice president, Larry Dixon; treasurer, Frank Sefchik.

The FTA Club provides a program for its members which will give them an opportunity to explore the field of teaching as a potential career.

As an FTA member you get to observe and try your hand in many teaching situations. Whiting's chapter of the FTA has a good exploratory teaching program. Senior members practice teach in both the elementary and secondary grades. All members have a chance to act as secretaries to the teachers.

Future Nurses Gain Insight in Medical Careers

To acquire a more thorough knowledge of the nursing profession and to promote student interest in nursing careers are the main objectives of the Nurses' Club.

Composing the membership of the club are those senior high school girls who are interested in becoming nurses and who meet the specific qualifications.

Two trips centered around the Chicago and Calumet area hospitals are planned every year. The first trip takes place in the fall and the second in the spring.

Mrs. Shirley Mehleck is the sponsor of the Nurses' Club.

Clubs Study Nations Via Foreign Languages

Latin Club officers are George Kucka, secretary; Gerri Zorich, vice-president; Therest Majda, president; Miss Mary Wysong, sponsor; Laura Tucker, treasurer.

To arouse in its members an interest in the culture and customs of the Roman people is the main goal of the Latin Club. The club tries to attain this goal by sponsoring various activities such as an initiation banquet for the first year students in the old Roman tradition.

One of the biggest responsibilities of the club is to choose several representatives to send to the National Convention of the Junior Classical League.

Other activities of this group include sponsoring a school dance, making a float for Homecoming, and taking educational trips to Chicago.

The Spanish Club is the second largest club in school. Any student taking Spanish or any senior or junior who has taken the language is eligible for membership.

The biggest event of the club is the annual Chili Bowl game between freshmen and sophomores—"Los Torros" and "Los Burros".

Another annual activity is the Christmas party done in Spanish style, in which the students wait to break the "Pinata", a bag filled with candy and small prizes.

Mr. Jack L. Taylor is sponsor of the club.

Spanish Club officers are Ramiza Romans, secretary; Jack Wilson, vice-president; Debbie Greig, treasurer; George Justak, president, and Mr. Jack Taylor, sponsor.

Shakespeare at his peak could not capture the wit, humor, and sincerity of the Whiting High School Thespians Society. The object of this group is to promote drama within the school and to give students a chance to show their acting potential on the stage.

To become a Thespian, the student must earn ten points. He gets these points by participating in all-school plays or working with the make-up crew, publicity, properties, tickets, or sound effects.

Thespian Troop 856 presents a number of all-school and class plays annually.

Leading the Thespian group are Mr. James Ulrich, sponsor; Candy Oliver, president; Cindy Herman, secretary; Jackie Dillon, vice-president; and Carol Milarch, treasurer.

"Look, girls, the TATTLER comes out next week!" says Miss Ane Marie Petersen to the co-editors of the TATTLER, Candy Oliver and Linda Langohr.

Produced by and for the students, the TATTLER, now 42 years old, is awaited every two weeks by the students of Whiting High School.

Mr. B. J. Vesely and the print shop boys set the type and run the paper off on the "Little Giant" press.

The four-paged paper contains the news of the school activities, sports, and features.

Faculty adviser is Miss Ane Marie Petersen.

Sports editor, Larry Podobinski, looks over the shoulders of the sports writers—Fred Hapak, Tim Kompier, and Jack Stefek—to see that they get the job done.

Tattler Staff Diligently Edits Bi-Weekly Paper

Cub reporters—JoJo Kinnane, Skipper Banik, Laurie Dvorscak, Annie Companik, and Eileen Grothouse—check copy to get experience for next year.

Carol Milarch, co-editor; Henrietta Gima and Arlene Benko, associate editors; Eileen Sandrick, co-editor consult Miss Ane Marie Petersen, REFLECTOR advisor, about yearbook problems.

"Where There's Life" was selected as the theme for the 1963 yearbook by the 17 members of the Reflector staff.

Work began in the spring of 1962 after the editors and the staff were announced at the annual Journalism Banquet.

Copy all finished, ads all collected, pictures all taken, and deadlines met—the 1963 Reflector is now completed.

Miss Ane Marie Petersen is faculty supervisor.

Sports editors, Donald Kometz and John Stanish, plan layout as Sue Romans, business manager, and Dennis Zelenke, advertising manager, look on.

Reflector Staff Paints a Portrait of Memories

Rita Keith and Nanci Michna, senior editors, identify pictures with the help of Linda Saltz and Wayne Morden, picture editors.

WHERE THERE'S LIFE, there are ADVERTISEMENTS. The Calumet Region merchants comprise only a small link on the huge chain of businessmen in this country; but they comprise, at the same time, a necessary link in that chain. The Calumet Region has a large variety of merchants. Many trades and businesses are represented in this area.

People can get their shoes fixed, groceries purchased, clothes cleaned, appliances repaired and bought, and thousands of other things done by the region's merchants.

Most prized with the girls of WHS are the many beauty salons in the area. With their fashionable coiffures, the girls keep the hair dressers mighty busy.

The 1963 REFLECTOR staff is also grateful to these merchants for another reason. They made it possible for our book to come out.

As a member of the Senior Class, very soon you will be making a decision regarding a big step into the future. Perhaps your decision will be to go on for further education. Or it may be, you will be looking for the job of your choice. In either event, this decision will affect and shape your future life in many ways.

Regardless of what you decide, we hope that the Inland Steel Company will be a part of your future.

Many graduates are currently involved in successful careers here at the Harbor Works as part of the nation's basic steel industry.

Steel mill work today is highly complex, involving automated production lines which require people who can be trained in skilled jobs. Most of the jobs are involved directly in the steel-making process while others are available in the laboratories or in various departmental offices. Regardless of your interests, excellent opportunities exist with Inland Steel.

In addition to excellent paying jobs and an outstanding benefit program, Inland offers a variety of on-the-job training programs plus the Purdue-Inland Program. This Program, offered to a full time employee, provides training in the areas of steelmaking, mechanics, and electricity.

Plan now to investigate the many opportunities for your future with Inland Steel Company.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased from 10.5 million to 12.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased from 4.5 million to 6.5 million (Office of National Statistics 2000).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people in the community. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people. The strategy is based on the following principles:

- Older people should be able to live independently and actively in the community.
- Older people should be able to access the services and facilities they need.
- Older people should be able to participate in the decisions that affect their lives.
- Older people should be able to live in a safe and secure environment.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives, including:

- To improve the health and well-being of older people.
- To improve the housing and living conditions of older people.
- To improve the transport and travel facilities for older people.
- To improve the social and cultural life of older people.

The strategy is a key document in the development of policy for older people in the UK. It provides a framework for the development of services and facilities for older people, and sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people.
